Rules and Regulations for Undergraduate Programmes under Choice Based Credit System w.e.f. 2014 - 2015

Introduction : As per the recommendations of National Knowledge Commission and UGC as well as recommendations of High Power Committee constituted for the purpose at the national level, the central and state universities and other institutions of higher education need to carry out academic reforms. The UGC in its 11th Plan proposal and strategies has taken a number of new initiatives for reforms in higher education. Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) is one of the academic reforms and it has several unique features such as enhanced learning opportunities, ability to match students scholastic needs and aspirations, inter institution transferability of students, part completion of an academic programme in the institution of enrollment and part completion in a specialized (and recognized) institution, improvement in educational quality and excellence, flexibility for working students to complete programme over an extended time and standardization of comparability of educational programmes across country.This system enriches the learning ability of students thereby enhances Quality of education in the institution.

The challenges of Globalization can be met by:
1. Making the curriculum interdisciplinary.
2. Bridging the gap between professional and liberal education.
3. Promoting students' mobility – horizontal as well as vertical.
4. Collaboration with industry and research organizations/corporate sector units to foster innovations. It offers a flexible system of learning.
5. Learning goals of the course and learning objectives of the units/sub-units enunciated in the curriculum.

The system permits student to : (ADVANTAGES)
1. Learn at their own pace in some courses of study.
2. Choose electives from a wide range of courses – Knowledge and Skill based.
3. Undergo additional courses and acquire more than required number of credits.
4. Adopt an interdisciplinary approach in learning through electives & COP.
5. Inter college/University transfers of Credits.
6. Complete a part of programme in the parent institute and get enrolled in another institution for specialized courses offering in CBCS.
7. Enhance skill/employability by taking up project work, entrepreneurship and vocational training.
8. Make best use of the expertise of available faculty/resources of the institution.
9. Exposes the learner to community service, research orientation etc.,
10. Engages the student in various kinds of activities to enhance "learning opportunities"(group work, individual work, data collection, field work, quizzes, community involvement, project work etc.,).
11. Enables integration of concepts, theories, techniques and perspectives from interdisciplinary approach.
12. Capacity building of students through industry, academic institutions, research organizations and other private and public sector entrepreneurship, institutional collaborations.
13. Course components are delivered through Lecture sessions, Tutorial sessions, Practical/Practice sessions (LTP) of teaching-learning process.
14. A student enjoys an extraordinary benefit that his/her evaluation would be in terms of grades, computed through a more scientific and a logical process of normalization which imbibes the advantages of relative weighing of the performances against evaluating in an absolute way.
15. The great advantage is that the learning process is made continuous and evaluation process is not only made continuous but also made learner-centric and is designed to recognize the capability and talent of a student.

GRADES AND GRADE POINTS

A+(Excellent)	9	P (Pass)	4
A (Very Good)	8	F (Fail)	0
